PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Christian community striving to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. Nourished by the Eucharist and enlightened by the Word of God, our Pastor, Parish Staff and Parishioners welcome all. With faith in His Gospel, we are called to love as Jesus loves and, therefore, serve our community through the sharing of time, talents and treasure to support programs of evangelization and social justice. Our commitment encompasses serving the youth through education, sports and formation. We seek to develop services for the elderly and homebound. Finally, we wish to challenge and sustain all parishioners through spiritual and educational activities.

A Sunday Devotion

Never underestimate the power of prayer! People who are feeling discouraged and hopeless often say something like, “There’s nothing left to do but pray.” The implication is that this is their last resort—and a feeble one at that. Nothing could be further from the truth!

I created mankind with the ability to communicate with Me. Since I am the eternal, immortal, invisible King of the universe, this is an astonishing privilege. Even when the human race became tainted with sin through Adam and Eve’s disobedience, I did not withdraw this glorious privilege. And when I lived in your world as a flesh-and-blood man, I relied heavily on praying to me Father. I was keenly aware of how continuously I needed His help.

Persistent, heartfelt prayer will bless not only you but also your family, friends, church—even your country. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you pray effectively. Find others to join you in this venture of seeking My Face in humility and repentance. Beseech Me to heal your land.

From the Music Director

St. John-Marie Vianney,

Patron Saint of Parish Priests

From his youth, John-Marie Vianney saw priests as heroes. When the anticlerical pursuits of the French Revolution began, priests had to preach in secret, so John-Marie received his First Communion privately. Almost not becoming a priest because his Latin scores were so low, (and he had to dodge a couple drafts into Napoleon’s army) after being ordained in 1815 he became the pastor of a remote tiny French village named Ars. There he lived simply, sometimes in great suffering, but people found in him a wealth of spiritual advice. They flocked to him, and as the crowds grew, he sometimes spent sixteen hours a day in the confessional. The rest of his time was filled with acts of great charity. He died on August 4, 1859.

In honor of his feast day on August 4th, Cooking with the Saints suggests treating your parish priests to Normandy Chicken that highlights apples and apple cider, ingredients well-known in St. John Vianney’s area of France. Drinking with the Saints recommends enjoying an Amaretto Sour, a liqueur flavored with the almond, which grew miraculously on the rod of the High Priest Aaron.

The Catholic Steward

Stewardship Education and Reflections on the Weekly Mass Readings

Often, we live our lives working for temporary happiness. But today, Jesus reminds us to “not work for food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life.”

Our Eucharistic meal is the Spiritual Food that we consume — Jesus Himself, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. It will satisfy us as Jesus says, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.”

We all have the need to be satisfied. It is in our humanity. And in that incompleteness, we grab at what surrounds us to satisfy our hearts. It could be the next job promotion, the comforts in our homes, the next trip we plan to take. The list goes on. We might think to ourselves, ‘then I will be happier.’ Or maybe we don’t even realize how we are relying on those things or events in our lives.

And while many of those things are good and bring us joy, they are only a small glimpse of the deeper, lasting happiness that the Lord offers us. They are gifts that should remind us of our Good and Gracious Creator. Instead of placing undue importance on those things or people, place it on Jesus, as He says, “Whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.” He is the One who fills our hearts.

As you go about your day-to-day lives this week, try to recognize the times you are “working for food that perishes” by seeking things of the world to satisfy your heart. In those moments, recall that everything we have is a gift from God. Instead of misusing that gift, offer a prayer of thanksgiving for all He has given to you.

A Reflection from Love and Serve

This Week's Readings | USCCB

Do you remember the old GEICO TV commercial that poked fun at decisions people make in horror movies? In it, four young people are frantically running and tripping in the dark outside of a home, trying to get away from a presumed killer. One youth suggests hiding in the attic; another suggests the basement, and a third offers a logical solution: “Why can’t we just get in the running car?” as she points to a sporty red convertible. To which the fourth young person responds: “Are you crazy? Let’s hide behind the chainsaws”, as he points to a garage with a wide-open door. “If you’re in a horror movie, you make poor decisions!” The announcer’s voice plays over the video of the youth confined to the garage as the predator looks at them, shaking his head in disbelief at their choice of a safe place.

Last week and until the end of August, the Lectionary temporarily transitioned from Mark’s Gospel to Gospel readings from John, Chapter 6. We read John’s account of the miracle of the multiplication of five loaves of bread and two fish that fed a crowd of over five thousand people. In today’s Gospel, that same crowd came to Jesus and asked Him: “What sign can you do, that we may see and believe in you? What can you do?” (John 6:30). The crowd’s decision to ask for a sign was a poor one. We can say: how quickly do they forget? We can also say that about the Israelite community in the wilderness when they grumbled against Moses and Aaron and fondly recalled their days as slaves to the Egyptians, as we read in today’s Old Testament selection from the Book of Exodus. Maybe it is not uncommon for people to forget all the ways God reveals Himself and provides for His people! It is why “They have eyes but do not see; ears but do not hear” is transcribed multiple times in the Old and New Testaments.

Faith is the great gift God gives to us. Through our faith, He reveals Himself, and by His grace, we intellectually assent to and accept His revelations as truths. Faith is both personal and communal. As individuals, we live by faith and trust in God to guide our footsteps. As a Church, we profess our faith in God and His teachings. Another gift God gives us is the dignity and capacity to choose between good and evil when making big and small decisions for ourselves using our conscience. Like all other gifts given to us by God, we must guide and form our conscience through learning and praying for wisdom. As the Church puts it in part: “The education of the conscience is a lifelong task. From the earliest years, it awakens the child to the knowledge and practice of the interior law recognized by conscience. Prudent education teaches virtue; it prevents or cures fear, selfishness and pride, resentment arising from guilt, and feelings of complacency, born of human weakness and faults.” (Catechism §1784)

So, let us listen for and discern God’s voice by reflecting on His Sacred Scriptures. Let us open our hearts to the Holy Spirit to inspire and guide our decisions.

SUMMERTIME PLANNED GIVING SUGGESTIONS – PART 2

As you enjoy the summer months and the chance to take some time for yourself, you may want to take some time to check the legal documents related to your home. With the rapid rise in real estate prices a person's home could very well be that person's most valuable asset. Home title and related documents must be in order to make sure you and your family are protected. For example, is the title to your house in your individual name or in joint name with someone else? Are you the surviving joint tenant of the property? If you paid off your mortgage, was the Satisfaction of Mortgage properly recorded? Are all your real estate taxes paid currently? Many people assume their real estate documents are in order, but sometimes there are unexpected difficulties which arise because of life events affecting the existing documentation. Taking the time to check does not take long and is important to make sure your home is secure.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Bob Pape at the Catholic Foundation for Brooklyn and Queens at 718-965-7375, ext.1621 or at rpape@cfbq.org.

A little summertime review provides additional peace of mind for an enjoyable summer season.
