PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Christian community striving to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. Nourished by the Eucharist and enlightened by the Word of God, our Pastor, Parish Staff and Parishioners welcome all. With faith in His Gospel, we are called to love as Jesus loves and, therefore, serve our community through the sharing of time, talents and treasure to support programs of evangelization and social justice. Our commitment encompasses serving the youth through education, sports and formation. We seek to develop services for the elderly and homebound. Finally, we wish to challenge and sustain all parishioners through spiritual and educational activities.

A Sunday Devotion

My Face Is Shining Upon You, beloved. Take time to linger in My joyous Light, and seek to know Me as I truly am. I am always near you, closer than the air you're breathing. Awareness of My loving Presence is a rich blessing. However, the most important this is to trust that I am with you regardless of what you are experiencing.

I am immanent—present throughout the entire universe. I am also transcendent—existing above and independent from the universe. I am the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God. As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts. Therefore, don't expect to fully understand me or My ways. When things don't go as you think they should, be willing to bow before My infinite wisdom and knowledge. My judgements are unsearchable and My paths beyond tracing out, but they are good. Remember, the example of Job. When his family experienced multiple disasters, he fell to the ground in worship. I transcend all your troubles!

The Gloria

Often referred to as “the angelic hymn,” the Gloria was first intoned by the angels from heaven for the birth of Christ on earth. Its opening burst of praise overflows into a series of joyful cries addressed to the Father: “we praise you, we bless you, we adore you...” It goes on to implore the mercy of the Son, the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world, and then praises him. Its final lines soar into the mystery of the Trinity.

Modeled after the psalms and canticles of the Bible, in the 4th century it was originally used as an Easter hymn and at the conclusion of morning prayer. It was first incorporated into the pope's Christmas Mass in the 6th century, and by the 11th century it was sung at Sunday Masses and special occasions. A hymn of joyful amazement at God's mercy, it is not sung during Lent, when we take time to appreciate the strength of the force of sin in our lives. And since Advent is supposed to be a time of quiet preparation for Christmas, Fr. Mark Ott explains we don't sing it because, “according to the narrative of Mary and Joseph at this time, the Gloria had not yet been sung.”

When the entire assembly owns the words of this hymn and sings from their heart, their joy in glorifying God reverberates throughout the church. Do you sing it from your heart?

Word of Life

“Although we may feel unsure how best to comfort those who mourn, we must stand with them in their time of suffering. Miscarriage touches the lives of many people, yet all too often this tragedy remains unaddressed. This lack of response not only often leads to unresolved grief, but also fails to clearly manifest our belief that each person, from conception onward, is precious and unique.”

A Reflection from Love and Serve

This Week's Readings | USCCB

The readings chosen by the Church for this Sunday once again speak of God providing for our needs through the transformative power of the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. They invite us to continue reflecting on His gift that, as the Catechism states it, contains the body and blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ under the appearances of bread and wine. The Eucharist provides spiritual nourishment and is God's pledge of future glory. It is an essential source of grace and strength that transforms and empowers us to live out our faith with a commitment to love and service to God and people. It is central not only to our lives but also to the life of the Church as it unites us with Christ and one another to become one body, the Church.

In the Old Testament Reading from the First Book of Kings, we learn about a significant time in the life of the prophet Elijah, his struggles, and God's response to his plight. Elijah confronted the false prophets of Baal on Mount Carmel and called for fire from heaven to illustrate the power of the true God. Fearful and despondent, he fled into the wilderness as Queen Jezebel sought to kill him. He falls into despair and cries out: "Enough, Lord! Take my life". But an angel of God brought a hearth cake and a jug of water, woke him from his sleep twice, and pleaded with him to get up to eat. Strengthened by the food, Elijah walked forty days and forty nights to Mount Horeb. The Reading is full of symbolism. Mount Horeb is where Moses encountered God in the burning bush and received the Ten Commandments. It is a reference to God establishing His covenant with His people and a reminder of His call to faithfulness and assurance of His love and grace throughout the journey of faith. The forty days and forty nights reference the forty years the Israelites wandered in the desert after fleeing slavery in Egypt as God tested, purified, and prepared them for the promised land. The Eucharist is the food and drink from heaven that we receive at mass on our journey to be with God.

In the Gospel reading, Jesus used symbolic language that the Jews would have understood when He said He is the bread of life that came down from heaven. He added that the bread is His flesh: "the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." (John 6:51b). The bread and wine in the Eucharist are not merely symbolic. During the celebration of the Eucharist, they are transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ while their substance remains.

Finally, in the New Testament reading for today, from the Epistle to the Ephesians, Paul outlines the principles for living a holy life in Christ and how we should conduct ourselves daily. We can acknowledge that there is a place for righteous anger when we see injustices. However, Paul directs us against harboring bitterness, rage, and reviling, as these can lead to malice. Instead, he urges us to show kindness and compassion and be forgiving as we strive to imitate Christ in our lives.

Go in Peace to Love and Serve the Lord.

SUMMERTIME PLANNED GIVING SUGGESTIONS – PART 3

As we appreciate the summertime pleasures of August, did you know that August is also National Make a Will month? The pleasures of summer in August allow you to spend more time with your family and in the process make family memories that will last generations.

If you do not have a Will, you are not alone. Most folks do not have a Will. As you have heard, a Will is an important document you should have in place to protect the family you are making summer memories with. By having a Will, your property will be passed to your family as you have designated. You will have chosen the person or persons, the Executor, who will see to it that your instructions are carried out. Most important, if you have children who are minors, you designate the person or persons, the Guardian, who will be responsible to raise your children in the event you and your spouse are not around to do so.

So, as you enjoy the summertime pleasures of August with your family, take some time to be a part of National Make a Will Month. You will find that the process is not difficult and the benefit of having the protection of a Will makes your summertime memories, especially in August, even more enjoyable.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Bob Pape at the Catholic Foundation for Brooklyn and Queens at 718-965-7375, ext. 1621 or rpape@cfbq.org.

Vote 'NO' on NYS Prop One Nov. 5

This year's election ballot will feature Proposal One, also known as the "Equal Rights Amendment" (ERA) by supporters, which is a proposed amendment to the NYS Constitution. In short, if approved by New York's voters, the poorly written Prop One would make abortion at any stage a state constitutional right and could infringe on parents' rights to make medical decisions for their children, including so-called "gender-affirming" procedures.

Why do we OPPOSE Prop One?

Proposed by the NYS Legislature, Prop One looks to replace already-existing important state protections with a rushed, poorly discussed ban on carefully crafted statutes which already prevent discrimination.

Although already legal, Prop One would make abortion at any stage a state constitutional right. This means if it is approved by the voters and added to the state constitution, it would make it nearly impossible to reverse the decision. After the overturning of Roe v. Wade, progressive states have attempted to force constitutional amendments to enshrine abortion in their state constitutions. These are very dangerous actions that dismiss the right to life.

Additionally, Prop One is currently written to "expand" state constitutional protections, on top of the preexisting federal and state bans on discrimination. Among other things, it includes protecting the rights of people, including minors, regarding sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, and reproductive healthcare in VERY vague terms. This means, if passed, parental rights will be infringed upon, and the New York State government could have authority to make medical or other decisions for your minor children.

The New York State Catholic Conference strongly urges you to vote 'NO' on Prop One this November. Voter approval of this amendment could lead to a permanent assault on the right to life in New York State and parents' rights to make medical decisions for their children.
