PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Christian community striving to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. Nourished by the Eucharist and enlightened by the Word of God, our Pastor, Parish Staff and Parishioners welcome all. With faith in His Gospel, we are called to love as Jesus loves and, therefore, serve our community through the sharing of time, talents and treasure to support programs of evangelization and social justice. Our commitment encompasses serving the youth through education, sports and formation. We seek to develop services for the elderly and homebound. Finally, we wish to challenge and sustain all parishioners through spiritual and educational activities.

A Sunday Devotion

My Chosen People are holy and dearly loved. I know that you are neither perfect nor sinless, but you are indeed holy in My sight. This is because I see you wrapped in the radiance of My righteousness. As My followers, you are covered with perfect righteousness forever! You are also dearly loved. Let this transformational truth seep into the inner recesses of your heart, mind and spirit. Beloved is your deepest, truest identity. When you look in the mirror, say to yourself, “I am my Beloved’s.” Repeat these four words throughout the day and just before you fall asleep.

Remembering you are perfectly loved by the King of Glory provides a solid foundation for your life. With your identity secure in Me, you can relate better to others. I want you to clothe yourself with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. Work on developing these qualities in your relationships with other people. The Holy Spirit will help you. He lives in you and delights to live through you—blessing others and you.

The Eucharistic Prayer

As we listen to the “Bread of Life” discourse in the Sunday Gospels, it presents an opportunity to delve deeper into the Eucharistic prayer, the summit of the Mass. “The meaning of the Prayer is that the entire congregation of the faithful should join itself with Christ in confessing the great deeds of God and in the offering of Sacrifice” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal 78). The Eucharistic prayer begins with the preface dialogue and ends with the great amen after the doxology. In it, not only does Christ become present under the forms of bread and wine, but Christ’s saving action, his Passion, death, and resurrection are offered to the Father by Christ himself in the person of the priest, and by all present.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops music guideline, called Sing to the Lord, tells us that people are invited to participate in reverence and silence in the Eucharistic prayer, “giving voice to their interior participation by joining in the Eucharistic acclamations.” These are the Holy, the Mystery of Faith and the Amen. The guidelines also recommend a unified musical style to frame the Eucharistic prayer, which is why we sing all three from the same Mass setting and change Mass settings for different liturgical seasons.

Word of Life

“Abortion affects countless marriages more than many people recognize. But there is no doubt that God will bring great healing to those who trust in His infinite mercy. If a past abortion can be acknowledged and addressed, a married couple can make great strides in experiencing even more fully God’s design that ‘the two shall become one’ (Mt 19:5)”

A Reflection from Love and Serve

This Week's Readings | USCCB

In The Sound of Music, the 1965 movie adaptation of the play with music by Richard Rodgers and lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein, a retired naval officer, Captain Georg von Trapp, is portrayed as a complex, stern, emotionally distant disciplinarian who is unapproachable by his children. The Captain runs his household with the same rigidity and meticulousness as his naval ships, enforcing strict rules with an authoritarian demeanor. In The King and I, an earlier Musical by Rodgers and Hammerstein, King Mongkut of Siam is an imposing, powerful, commanding, authoritarian, and autocratic King. For many, the attributes of these two characters recapitulate their view of who God is: an angry, distant, and difficult-to-please father figure. Pause for a moment. Is that the image of God you see?

The Holy Scriptures emphasize God's personal nature and traits, His presence, and His relationship with us. We can read about many examples of God's presence with His people throughout the Old Testament. He was in the Garden of Eden with Adam and Eve, and in the burning bush Moses encountered. He guided the Israelites in the wilderness and revealed Himself through prophets. In the Bible, God expresses love, anger, and sadness. It is important to note that these imageries of God are metaphorical, for He is spiritual and transcendent. God is the Creator and Sustainer of life and the universe. His beautiful creation is a reflection of His glory. God revealed Himself fully through the incarnation of Christ, the Word of God made flesh. As Christians, we come to a deeper understanding of God the Father, who, in Christ, embodies love and our salvation.

In today's Old Testament Reading from Proverbs, Divine Wisdom is depicted as a person who invites individuals to partake in her offerings. The Reading describes Wisdom as having built a house and prepared a feast, symbolizing the abundance and richness of the knowledge and understanding she provides. It calls us to embrace wisdom so that we advance our understanding. This is another example of God giving Himself to us. Who can turn down this invitation? In the light of Christ in our Gospel Reading for today, wisdom is symbolic of the Eucharist. Wisdom building a house is symbolic of Christ's incarnation. The invitation to eat her food and drink her wine is symbolic of the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus that we are invited to partake in so that we may live eternally.

God prepares a banquet and invites us to be in communion with Him. His incarnation and sacrifice illustrate the depths of His profound love that is beyond our understanding. He is the Living Bread that leads us to eternal life. The passages for today encapsulate the essence of God's relationship with humanity, inviting all to partake in the life He offers through Christ. Paul, in today's Reading from Ephesians, encourages us to be mindful of how we live, to walk with others in love, to be filled with the Holy Spirit, and to give thanks always in the name of Jesus.

Go in Peace to Love and Serve the Lord.

The Catholic Steward

Stewardship Education and Reflections on the Weekly Mass Readings

Jesus said to the crowd, “Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life...” We can hardly blame the crowd for their shock at this statement — eating the Flesh and drinking the Blood of our Lord should cause us a bit of a shock. Yet how easy it is to show up at Mass Sunday after Sunday, receiving the Eucharist as simply part of a weekly routine.

If we really spent time contemplating the gift our Lord is offering us in this sacrament, we would be awestruck at the love and power in this gift. Through it, our Lord is giving us the very best He has to give — Himself. Not even the greatest theological scholar or the holiest of saints can fully understand this mystery.

Thankfully we don’t need to be a saint or a scholar to receive this gift. But we should do our best to receive the Eucharist with gratitude. And we can look to today’s readings to glean two fundamental principles for becoming better Christian stewards.

The Eucharist is the foundation for a stewardship way of life. Through His gift of the Eucharist, God fills us with His love and strength. This love and strength empower us to live as generous stewards — to be faithful to the ministries we serve in, joyful in material giving, and offer our very best to our families and secular work.

The Eucharist is the ultimate inspiration for a stewardship way of life. When we contemplate this gift of God, we will want to make a joyful return to Him. Mass will become anything but routine and we will live each day as His passionate disciples.

Mass of Thanksgiving in honor of
FATHER RANDY NGUYEN
Sunday, August 25th, 11:00am

The parish is invited for a Mass of Thanksgiving celebrated by Fr. Randy Nguyen. If you are able to attend the Mass of Thanksgiving, you can receive a Plenary Indulgence for participating in this joyous occasion by going to confession and praying for the intention of Pope Francis during the weekend.

There will be a reception after Mass, where the parish community can congratulate Fr. Randy on his recent Ordination to the Priesthood.

SUMMERTIME PLANNED GIVING SUGGESTIONS – PART 3

As we appreciate the summertime pleasures of August, did you know that August is also National Make a Will month? The pleasures of summer in August allow you to spend more time with your family and in the process make family memories that will last generations.

If you do not have a Will, you are not alone. Most folks do not have a Will. As you have heard, a Will is an important document you should have in place to protect the family you are making summer memories with. By having a Will, your property will be passed to your family as you have designated. You will have chosen the person or persons, the Executor, who will see to it that your instructions are carried out. Most important, if you have children who are minors, you designate the person or persons, the Guardian, who will be responsible to raise your children in the event you and your spouse are not around to do so.

So, as you enjoy the summertime pleasures of August with your family, take some time to be a part of National Make a Will Month. You will find that the process is not difficult and the benefit of having the protection of a Will makes your summertime memories, especially in August, even more enjoyable.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Bob Pape at the Catholic Foundation for Brooklyn and Queens at 718-965-7375, ext. 1621 or at rpape@cfbq.org.
