PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Christian community striving to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. Nourished by the Eucharist and enlightened by the Word of God, our Pastor, Parish Staff and Parishioners welcome all. With faith in His Gospel, we are called to love as Jesus loves and, therefore, serve our community through the sharing of time, talents and treasure to support programs of evangelization and social justice. Our commitment encompasses serving the youth through education, sports and formation. We seek to develop services for the elderly and homebound. Finally, we wish to challenge and sustain all parishioners through spiritual and educational activities.

A Sunday Devotion

I Live In You! This four-word truth changes everything, wondrously improving your life both now and forever. Don't worry about whether you're an adequate home for Me. I joyfully move into believers' humble hearts, where I work patiently on renovating them. But I refuse to dwell in people who think they are "good enough" without Me. I have called such hypocrites whitewashed tombs: beautiful on the outside but putrid on the inside.

As you ponder the miraculous truth that I live in you, let your heart overflow with Joy! I am not a short-term tenant, indwelling you only as long as your behavior pleases Me. I have come to stay—permanently. I warn you, though, that My renovations can be quite painful at times. When My transforming work in you causes intense discomfort, cling trustingly to Me. Live by faith in the One who loves you and gave Himself for you. As you continue yielding to the changes I'm making, you'll become more and more fully the masterpiece I designed you to be.

From the Music Director

St. Louis

August 25th is the feast day of Crusader Luis IX, (1214-1270) the only canonized king of France. With access to vast fortunes, he practiced Franciscan poverty. As king, he assisted at two masses every day. He instigated significant reforms in the French legal system and his reputation as a fair and judicious ruler led to his being solicited to mediate disputes beyond his own kingdom.

The city of St. Louis, MO was founded in 1764 by French fur traders who named it for him. The Cathedral-Basilica of Saint Louis, King of France in New Orleans is the oldest cathedral in continuous use in the United States. I've sung there many times and still do every time I visit there. A carved portrait of him adorns the chambers of the United States House of Representatives and he is on a frieze depicting a timeline of important lawgivers throughout world history in the Courtroom at the Supreme Court of the United States.

In 1868, an Episcopal rector asked his organist to write a tune for his new hymn text inspired by his recent trip to Galilee called "O Little Town of Bethlehem." He named the tune ST. LOUIS, after the saint the composer was named for. And we'll be singing it five months from today!

Word of Life

“God’s love—
individual, real, unchanging is the true source of our worth, identity, and dignity. It really is not a question of who we are, but rather whose we are.
Because his love will never change,
nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can diminish the immeasurable worth of our lives.”

A Reflection from Love and Serve

This Week's Readings | USCCB

You are at mass with your family and hear the New Testament Reading from Ephesians Chapter 5, the Wives and Husbands Reading. You know the one! “Wives should be subordinate to their husbands.”! You look at your teenage daughter standing beside you, looking back at you and rolling her eyes. You turn around to look at her older sister, who tilts her head and looks down in disapproval. What are you thinking? What will you say when you're walking or driving home with your family when mass is over?

We encounter this Reading from Ephesians 5 not only when the Lectionary brings it to us every three years but also quite often at weddings we attend. What is the essence of this selection? Let's examine truths that give some perspective to it. Firstly, the Bible tells us that women and men are created in God's image. “God created mankind in his image; in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.” (Genesis 1:27). The Church underscores that this inherent equality is bestowed by God.

Pope John Paul II wrote in his Apostolic Exhortation, Familiaris Consortio: “Above all it is important to underline the equal dignity and responsibility of women with men. This equality is realized in a unique manner in that reciprocal self-giving by each one to the other and by both to the children, which is proper to marriage and the family....In creating the human race 'male and female,' God gives man and woman an equal personal dignity, endowing them with the inalienable rights and responsibilities proper to the human person.” Pope Francis also articulated that the differences between men and women are intended for mutual enrichment and understanding rather than opposition or subordination: “The difference between man and woman is not meant to stand in opposition, or to subordinate, but is for the sake of communion and generation, always in the image and likeness of God.” Secondly, all people are equal and heirs to eternal life as promised by God: “There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's descendant, heirs according to the promise.” (Galatians 3:28-29). The Bible and the Church teach that men and women are equal.

Paul calls both husbands and wives to be subordinates to one another. When he says that the husband is the head of his wife, he parallels it to Christ being the head of the Church. Think how profound and sacrificial Jesus' love is! Jesus' love for the Church is a strong and eternal covenant He established with it, and He continues giving Himself to the Church in the Eucharist. This is the model of love, commitment, care, and respect for all entering the marriage covenant. It is a mutual submission and service to one another in love, not a hierarchical relationship. Couples with or without children are encouraged by this week's Reading to renew their commitment to one another and to embrace the call to love, respect, and serve each other in their journey together

SUMMERTIME PLANNED GIVING SUGGESTIONS – PART 3

As we appreciate the summertime pleasures of August, did you know that August is also National Make a Will month? The pleasures of summer in August allow you to spend more time with your family and in the process make family memories that will last generations.

If you do not have a Will, you are not alone. Most folks do not have a Will. As you have heard, a Will is an important document you should have in place to protect the family you are making summer memories with. By having a Will, your property will be passed to your family as you have designated. You will have chosen the person or persons, the Executor, who will see to it that your instructions are carried out. Most important, if you have children who are minors, you designate the person or persons, the Guardian, who will be responsible to raise your children in the event you and your spouse are not around to do so.

So, as you enjoy the summertime pleasures of August with your family, take some time to be a part of National Make a Will Month. You will find that the process is not difficult and the benefit of having the protection of a Will makes your summertime memories, especially in August, even more enjoyable.
