PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

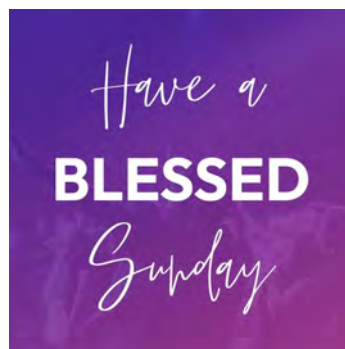

We are a Catholic Christian community striving to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. Nourished by the Eucharist and enlightened by the Word of God, our Pastor, Parish Staff and Parishioners welcome all. With faith in His Gospel, we are called to love as Jesus loves and, therefore, serve our community through the sharing of time, talents and treasure to support programs of evangelization and social justice. Our commitment encompasses serving the youth through education, sports and formation. We seek to develop services for the elderly and homebound. Finally, we wish to challenge and sustain all parishioners through spiritual and educational activities.

A Sunday Devotion

I am Your Strength. This truth about Me is especially precious on days when your inadequacies are screaming at you, telling you that you just can't go on. Knowing Me as your Strength is like having a guide who is always with you —showing you the way forward, clearing away obstacles, empowering you to take the next step. I hold you by your right hand, and I guide you with My counsel. Since I am omniscient, knowing everything, My counsel provides the best wisdom imaginable.

So don't fret about your weaknesses. They are training you to depend on my loving Presence— confident that I am with you and I will help you. Your world becomes less threatening when you throw off the pretense of being able to handle things by yourself. Furthermore, I meet you in your weaknesses and use them to draw other people to Me. My Light shines in and through your inadequacies when you keep looking to Me, your Strength. Let this Love-Light flow freely through you, filling you with joy that overflows into others' lives.

God of Our Fathers

The author of this hymn, Daniel C. Roberts, was born in Long Island in 1841, but went to college in Ohio, and served in the American Civil War assigned to the 84th Ohio Volunteers. After the war, he was ordained an Episcopalian priest and sent to Brandon, VT. He wrote this text in 1876 for their local patriotic celebration commemorating the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

A few years later, the General Convention of the Episcopal Church was commissioned to choose a hymn for the celebration in 1888 of the Centennial of the Adoption of the United States Constitution. So, he sent "God of Our Fathers" in for their consideration. They liked it, and the organist of St. Thomas Church on 5th Avenue here in New York City composed a new tune for it called NATIONAL HYMN. Because of its use in that national celebration, it became widely known. Of all the patriotic songs written for this Centennial celebration, this is the only one that is still regularly sung today. Happy Labor Day!!!

Word of Life

Suicidal individuals—with or without terminal illness—typically do not want to die...

The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, “Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?”

A Reflection from Love and Serve

This Week's Readings | USCCB

Our Gospel selection for this Sunday returns to St. Mark's Gospel after reading Chapter 6 of St. John's Gospel for the past five weeks. We will continue reading Mark's Gospel until we return to St. John's Gospel on the last Sunday of this Liturgical year, the Feast of Christ the King, on November 24, 2024.

A few days after the start of the 2024 Paris Summer Olympics, the Associated Press had a story about Vivianne Robinson, an Olympics superfan who spent $10,000 to attend the games. It was her seventh Olympic games in 40 years. Vivianne, 66, worked two jobs, saved up, and maxed out her credit cards to afford the trip to Paris and tickets to almost 40 events. "It was hard to save up and it's a big budget, but it's a thousand times worth it," she said. Robinson's photos and short video accompanying the story show her wearing a shirt, vest, and USA bucket hat covered with Olympic rings, pins, and adornments. I, too, love sports and always look forward to watching the Olympics. Unlike Vivianne, I did not spend money on travel, colorful pins, and other Olympic merchandise. My budget for watching the Olympics was only about $7, a one-month subscription to the streaming service televising the games. We're both sports fans but with different levels of devotion. This reminded me of the song Talkin' New York where Bob Dylan sings about auditioning to play music: "The man there said he loved m' sound, He was ravin' about how he loved m' sound, dollar a day's worth." Some people love Bob Dylan's music, but not everyone. Then there are those Dylan sings about who only love him a "dollar a day's worth." It is not just sports and music; people have varying levels of devotion, loyalty, and commitment for many reasons in almost every facet and discipline of life.

In today's Gospel, the Pharisees and scribes question Jesus, "Why do your disciples eat with unclean hands?" The Pharisees and scribes objected not to Jesus' disciples' cleanliness but to the fact that they broke long-standing Jewish traditions of washing up before meals. We learned from the Scriptures that some religious leaders do good but not for the right reasons. Jesus repeated Isaiah's prophesy about hypocrites: "This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; In vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines human precepts. You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition." (Mark 7:6b-8). The faith of some of the Pharisees and scribes was not authentic. Their hearts and deeds were not aligned with God's teachings and commandments. How about us? Sure, we attend mass and participate in Sacraments, but are we also putting limits or boundaries on our faith? Are we living a life faithful to what we believe and profess or simply following traditions and habits? Are we wholly embracing our call to discipleship or just going with "a dollar a day's worth" of Christianity? Join me today in reflecting on this question: How invested am I in my Christian faith?

Go in Peace to Love and Serve the Lord.

Stewardship Education and Reflections on the Weekly Mass Readings

Our readings today call us to pause for a moment and consider how we respond to God's love for us each day.

Our Gospel recounts a dialogue between the Pharisees and Jesus. The Pharisees questioned why Jesus' disciples did not practice the ritual washing before eating a meal.

Jesus' response reminds us to ask ourselves 'why.' Why do we remain faithful to God's commands? Why do we pray or go to Mass? Why do we participate in the sacraments? Why do we love others?

Often, we are living our faith a certain way out of obligation, fear, or duty. But Jesus reminds us that the greatest way to live out our faith is through love. Our faith has obligations to provide us opportunities to love, honor, and praise the Lord. They are meant to aid us on our personal journey with Jesus Christ.

St. James reminds us that every moment of each day is an opportunity to respond to God's infinite love for us with love and gratitude in return.

If we approach our relationship with Jesus with this in mind, then we begin to realize that the gift of the Mass is an opportunity to worship God, the sacraments are ways to draw us closer to Him and His commandments are opportunities to love Him more faithfully.

And if we approach our day-to-day moments with this in mind, then we begin to see just how many blessings God has given us. Looking at life through the lens of gratitude helps us to see each moment as a gift with endless opportunities to respond in love.

This is how we ought to live our lives as Christian stewards — by recognizing our lives as a gift and an opportunity to love God in response to how He has loved us.

Pope Saint Gregory the Great

In the history of the Church, there are less than five popes esteemed with the title "the Great." One of the lesser known members of this impressive group is Pope St. Gregory the Great. Gregory is known for his prolific writing, his radical humility, his emphasis on missions, and his dedication to almsgiving. Enjoy this discussion between Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. John Sehorn.
