PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Christian community striving to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. Nourished by the Eucharist and enlightened by the Word of God, our Pastor, Parish Staff and Parishioners welcome all. With faith in His Gospel, we are called to love as Jesus loves and, therefore, serve our community through the sharing of time, talents and treasure to support programs of evangelization and social justice. Our commitment encompasses serving the youth through education, sports and formation. We seek to develop services for the elderly and homebound. Finally, we wish to challenge and sustain all parishioners through spiritual and educational activities.

A Sunday Devotion

While You Wait With Me, I work on renewing your mind. As the Light of My Presence shines into your mind, darkness flees and deception is unmasked. However, there are many crevices where old thought patterns try to hide. My Spirit can search out and destroy those enemies, but He awaits your cooperation. Habitual ways of thinking do not die easily. When the Spirit's Light illuminates a hurtful thought, capture it by writing it down. Then bring it to Me so we can examine it together. I will help you identify the distortions and replace them with biblical truth.

The more you focus on Me and My Word, the more you can break free from painful, irrational thoughts. They usually have their roots in distressing experiences that wounded you, so the distortions are deeply etched into your brain. You may need to recapture the same thought multiple times before you can gain mastery over it. But all the effort leads to a marvelous result: increased ability to live freely and enjoy My Presence.

The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The Church has celebrated Mary's birth since at least the sixth century. The date of September 8, chosen because the Eastern Church begins its Church year in September, helped determine the date for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception on December 8. Although scripture does not give an account of Mary's birth, according to the Gospel of James, her parents Anna and Joachim are infertile, but receive the promise of a child who will advance God's plan of salvation for the world.

Saint Andrew of Crete says that creation is jubilant on this special day because the birth of Mary is a joyful prelude to the gift of humanity's salvation. In France, the best grapes are brought to church to be blessed and then some bunches are attached to the hands of the statue of Mary. In Malayalam, an 8-day abstinence of meat and alcohol is observed prior to it being celebrated with a feast featuring a ceremonial rice pudding. In Malta, churches are decorated, and brass band concerts or processions happen with fireworks. Universally, the annual blessing of seeds on the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary aids farmers seeking God's blessing on their crops. What are you doing to celebrate?

A Reflection from Love and Serve

This Week's Readings | USCCB

The Book of Isaiah was written by the prophet and some of his disciples who came years after him. The verses chosen for our Old Testament reading today from Chapter 35 were likely written by his followers. Much of the Book of Isaiah is written like poems, and that is true of this entire chapter, which reads like a beautiful psalm of hope. Pick up your Bible today and read Isaiah 35. The name Isaiah is formed by the Hebrew words Yesha and Yahu. Both words are derivatives of the name YHWH, the Hebrew name for God, which is transliterated as Yahweh. Yesha means to save, so Isaiah means Yahweh saves, or Yahweh is salvation. Isaiah was a major Hebrew prophet in the 8th century BC, a critical time in Israel's history. The Kingdom of Israel, also known as the Northern Kingdom, was already conquered by the Neo-Assyrian Empire. The kingdom of Judah, also known as the Southern Kingdom, was facing a similar fate as the Assyrian army approached its capital, Jerusalem. Isaiah speaks to the distressed people of the Southern Kingdom, offering a hopeful message of God's healing, restoration, and salvation. God promises strength, assurance, and salvation. Isaiah uses imagery for this transformation: the blind seeing, the deaf hearing, and the lame leaping.

God's mercy revealed by the prophet is not just for the 8th-century BC people of the Kingdom of Judah but also for us. In our weakness, God promised strength. God's presence in our lives brings joy and renewal to our fears, doubts, despairs, and angst.

The Gospel of Mark is recognized as the earliest of the four canonical gospels. It is also the shortest of all the gospels. The Gospel's concise narrative focuses primarily on Jesus' public ministry, miracles, and the events leading to His Passion, Death, and Resurrection while leaving out details of His birth and early life that can be found in the other gospels. In today's Gospel Reading, Mark's account of the healing of the deaf man reveals Jesus's humanity. Jesus took the man away from the crowd and touched his ear and tongue to make him hear and speak. The man may not have heard Jesus crying out for his ears to be opened as he looked up to heaven, but he had to feel Jesus' touch. Jesus' intimate healing of the deaf man fulfills Isaiah's prophecy of our merciful God being our healer. The accounts of Jesus' miracles in the Gospels continue the hope Isaiah proclaimed, showing that God actively cares for and restores His people.

It is noteworthy that the deaf man with a speech impediment did not seek Jesus to declare his faith and ask for healing. The people brought him to Jesus and begged Him to lay His hand on him to heal him. We are called to be instruments of God's mercy and healing in the world. We need to actively listen and respond to the needs of those around us. We are challenged to reach out to others and share with them the good news of God's mercy and the gift of grace and peace we received.

Go in Peace to Love and Serve the Lord.

Vote 'NO' on NYS Prop One Nov. 5

This year's election ballot will feature Proposal One, also known as the "Equal Rights Amendment" (ERA) by supporters, which is a proposed amendment to the NYS Constitution. In short, if approved by New York's voters, the poorly written Prop One would make abortion at any stage a state constitutional right and could infringe on parents' rights to make medical decisions for their children, including so-called "gender-affirming" procedures.

Why do we OPPOSE Prop One?

Proposed by the NYS Legislature, Prop One looks to replace already-existing important state protections with a rushed, poorly discussed ban on carefully crafted statutes which already prevent discrimination.

Although already legal, Prop One would make abortion at any stage a state constitutional right. This means if it is approved by the voters and added to the state constitution, it would make it nearly impossible to reverse the decision. After the overturning of Roe v. Wade, progressive states have attempted to force constitutional amendments to enshrine abortion in their state constitutions. These are very dangerous actions that dismiss the right to life.

Additionally, Prop One is currently written to "expand" state constitutional protections, on top of the preexisting federal and state bans on discrimination. Among other things, it includes protecting the rights of people, including minors, regarding sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, and reproductive healthcare in VERY vague terms. This means, if passed, parental rights will be infringed upon, and the New York State government could have authority to make medical or other decisions for your minor children.

The New York State Catholic Conference strongly urges you to vote 'NO' on Prop One this November. Voter approval of this amendment could lead to a permanent assault on the right to life in New York State and parents' rights to make medical decisions for their children.
