PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Christian community striving to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. Nourished by the Eucharist and enlightened by the Word of God, our Pastor, Parish Staff and Parishioners welcome all. With faith in His Gospel, we are called to love as Jesus loves and, therefore, serve our community through the sharing of time, talents and treasure to support programs of evangelization and social justice. Our commitment encompasses serving the youth through education, sports and formation. We seek to develop services for the elderly and homebound. Finally, we wish to challenge and sustain all parishioners through spiritual and educational activities.

A Note from Faith Formation

Family Faith Formation and Religious Education

First Day of Classes!

All of our students had great first days of school, with us welcoming Levels 1, 3, 4, and 7 in person for the first time, and Levels 2, 5, 6, and 8 remotely. We were SO EXCITED to see everyone, and loved having all of our boys and girls back for class! Special thanks to all of our Session A Catechists, Ms. Annamaria Mule, Mrs. Lynn Clendenin, Mrs. Gail Oswald, and Mrs. Karen Wilson for having a great first day, and to Father Marc for visiting our boys and girls!

From the Music Director

Are we in Communion during Communion?

The current issue of the liturgical music journal GIA Quarterly offers: “The restaurant sign read, ‘We have no Wi-Fi. Talk to one another.’ Next time you’re dining out, look around. Couples gaze at their phones instead of each other. Kids play on tablets so parents can eat in peace. But even without technology, we still often eat alone together. And this phenomenon of eating without connecting with the people around us isn’t limited to just our dining tables. We often approach the Eucharistic table and those who gather with us around it with the same disconnection. We might not be buried in our phones, but we bury ourselves in private prayer, trying not to be distracted by those around us. When it’s time to be fed with the body of Christ, we overlook the members of that same body all around us. At Wisdom’s table there is no Wi-Fi; just the invitation to savor the Lord’s goodness found in the bread from heaven and in our companions who break that bread with us.”

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal says: “The purpose of the communion hymn is to express the spiritual union of the communicants by means of the unity of their voices, to show gladness of heart, and to bring out more clearly the ‘communitarian’ character of the procession to receive the Eucharist.” Are we doing that?

Word of Life

“The Truth of the Gospel of life is the foundation of who we are as followers of Christ. In his earthly life, Jesus provided the perfect model for how we are to love our neighbor and live out the Gospel call: “Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me”
(Mt.25:40)

A Reflection from Love and Serve

This Week's Readings | USCCB

Mikhail Kalashnikov was a Soviet lieutenant general, engineer, and inventor of small weaponry. His most famous invention is the AK-47 assault rifle. After converting to Christianity and becoming a member of the Russian Orthodox Church, he wrote: "My spiritual pain is unbearable. I keep having the same unsolved question: if my rifle claimed people's lives, then can it be that I... a Christian and an Orthodox believer, was to blame for their deaths?" Many, like Kalashnikov, had regrets as they reflected on their life's work, priorities, and decisions. J. Robert Oppenheimer regretted working on the Manhattan Project and taking part in the development of the atomic bomb after seeing the bomb's devastating power of destruction. K-Cup creator and Keurig co-founder John Sylvan regrets inventing the coffee pod system, which critics call an environmental catastrophe.

The theme for today's Lectionary is wisdom. The Readings underscore the contrast between worldly and divine wisdom. Just as perspectives changed the hearts of Kalashnikov, Oppenheimer, and Sylvan, the difference between worldly and divine wisdom can shape our lives. As St. James put it in today's New Testament Reading, "For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every foul practice. But the wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity." (James 3:16-17). The world proclaims that success, riches, and power will bring joy and fulfillment. However, pursuing these outcomes can lead individuals to moral corruption, loneliness, regret, and blindness to God's truth. When we see things through the lens of our faith and God's authority, wisdom guides our moral choices. If we choose love and service to God and our neighbors, our choices will lead us to true fulfillment.

In today's Gospel, St. Mark exposes the humanity of Jesus' disciples. Jesus taught them that He would be arrested, put to death, and in three days, He would rise, but they did not understand nor question Him. In Capernaum, Jesus and His disciples arrive, and Jesus inquires about their conversation during the journey. The disciples feel ashamed as they had been focused on self-promotion and ambitious personal status rather than on the values of humility, service, and the kingdom of God, which Jesus consistently emphasized. The passage from Mark foreshadows the reversed nature of Christian leadership, where the greatest is the one who serves.

Christ exemplified true greatness through his sacrificial love. As His followers, we are called to serve others with humility and kindness, for God's wisdom values every person. Let us avoid gossip and judgment. Abandon pride and examine our ambitions and desires, aligning them with God's will rather than worldly standards.

Go in Peace to Love and Serve the Lord.

Ephesians was one of St. Paul's most widely circulated writings because of its powerful, practical instructions for disciples of Christ. In fact, its six short chapters contain some of the most discussed passages in the New Testament.

Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance examines several themes that are of special concern to Christians in today's culture and society—the nature of marriage, the purpose and role of the Church, the preeminence of grace in God's plan, and the reality of spiritual warfare.

Presenter Jeff Cavins explores what Paul's letter to the Ephesians tells us about the nature of the Church—as a body, as a household, as a mystery, as a communion, as a bride, and as an army. Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance shows the treasures that await us as adopted sons and daughters in the family of God.
