PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Christian community striving to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. Nourished by the Eucharist and enlightened by the Word of God, our Pastor, Parish Staff and Parishioners welcome all. With faith in His Gospel, we are called to love as Jesus loves and, therefore, serve our community through the sharing of time, talents and treasure to support programs of evangelization and social justice. Our commitment encompasses serving the youth through education, sports and formation. We seek to develop services for the elderly and homebound. Finally, we wish to challenge and sustain all parishioners through spiritual and educational activities.

Confirmation Day!

Last Sunday, September 29th, we Confirmed all of our students who completed Level 8 this past spring, and were joined by Bishop Witold Mrozlewski and all members of our St. Kevin's clergy for the big day! A big thank you to Mrs. Surace, Mr. Harrison, and Mrs. Morales for their religious instruction and the Faith Formation of all of our boys and girls to get them to this special and sacred moment in their lives. All Glory be to God for this day, and to the Holy Spirit for moving among us to make this day possible. I am so excited to see what our newest fully-initiated Catholics will bring to our Church, and to see how they will continue to bring Christ to others! Congratulations to all of our students and their families on this special day!

From the Music Director

For the Beauty of the Earth

Mesmerized by the splendor of the English countryside in 1864, 29-year-old schoolmaster Folliot Pierpont wrote "The Sacrifice of Praise" for a book of Communion hymns. Its original refrain "Christ, our God, to thee we raise; This our sacrifice of praise" was meant to mirror Christ's ultimate sacrifice – as the host is lifted during communion, we lift a "sacrifice of praise" in return. Later, verses based on Psalms 33 & 95 were added, praising God for things we encounter but often fail to appreciate—the beauty of the earth and skies; each hour; the joy of human love, etc. By 1916 publishers modified the refrain and changed its title, making it a hymn of thanksgiving.

The tune it's most sung to is called DIX. William Dix mistakenly got credit for the tune because he had written a Christmas carol "As with Gladness, Men of Old" five years earlier and set it to this tune, though it was really composed in 1838 by a German organist who founded the School of Sacred Music in Stuttgart, which popularized four-part singing in Protestant churches.

John Rutter composed his own setting of the text which our choir loves to sing. The Mormon Tabernacle Choir recorded the traditional tune on their album Consider the Lilies. But one of my favorites is a jazz piano version by Bradley Sowash. Check it out!

Word of Life

“When we meet Jesus in the Eucharist, this encounter has the power to change us. The Eucharist has the power to transform the depths of our hearts and the heart of our culture. United in the power of his Eucharistic Presence, may we work to ensure that each person has life—and has it in abundance.”

A Reflection from Love and Serve

This Week's Readings | USCCB

In June 2023, the Thriving Center of Psychology surveyed about a thousand Gen Z and Millennials, ages 18 to 42, who are currently in a relationship but unmarried. The survey revealed some alarming statistics: 40% think marriage is “an outdated tradition,” 85% do not think marriage is necessary for a “fulfilled and committed relationship,” and 72% aren't interested in getting married. More startling is a statistic of a 69% decline in Catholic marriages over 50 years between 1969 and 2019 by Georgetown University's Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate, a research center that conducts social studies of the Catholic Church.

With fewer young people willing to enter into the sacrament of Marriage, the Readings for this Sunday focus on marriage, family, and the nature of love. They call our attention to the sacrament of marriage, instituted by God as a plan for humanity from the time of Creation. Like calls to the priesthood and religious life, marriage is a vocation initiated by God and responded to by individuals. It is an invitation for people to discover and fulfill their unique purpose in life according to His divine plan. From the ground, God created man and woman to cling to each other and become one. Today's Gospel reinforces the unity and indissolubility of marriage. The Pharisees, at a time when marriage was often arranged and patriarchal, asked Jesus, “Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife? They were testing him.” (Mark 10:2). During that era, divorce for Jews was liberally granted. The Pharisees knew marriage legislation according to the Torah: “When a man, after marrying a woman, is later displeased with her because he finds in her something indecent, and he writes out a bill of divorce and hands it to her, thus dismissing her from his house” (Deuteronomy 24:1). The Pharisees were also aware of John the Baptist having been killed by Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee, after his outspoken condemnation of Herod's marriage to his brother's wife, Herodias. So, in asking Jesus about divorce in Judea and under Roman authority, they hoped His answer would implicate Him. Jesus responded that Moses allowed divorce because of the “hardness of hearts”. He said, “But from the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two but one flesh.” (Mark 10:6-8). Jesus' teaching, as it often does, challenges own and societal norms.

Some marry before they are ready to commit, others find it impossible to stay in very unequal or abusive unions. Sadly, not all marriages last, even after long periods of working towards reconciling differences. Like all lasting relationships, marriage is dynamic, with married couples committed to a lifelong covenant leading them to deeper love and partnership over time. With God's guidance, marriage is a commitment that demands genuine love, dedication, constant effort, cooperation, selflessness, and sacrifice.

Go in Peace to Love and Serve the Lord.

Stewardship Education and Reflections on the Weekly Mass Readings

Our readings this week speak to each of our domestic churches — the little churches that we call our families.

The First Reading from the book of Genesis takes us to the beginning of creation when God made man and woman. When Adam sees the woman he says, “This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called ‘woman.’”

We can almost hear the longing, gratitude, and appreciation in Adam’s voice when he meets Eve as he says, “at last.” She was a gift because she was an equal partner to him.

This was before the fall of man, meaning sin had not entered the world. Adam and Eve only viewed each other in total acceptance and love.

Our Gospel brings us to life after sin had entered the world — a time that is familiar to us. As the Pharisees questioned Jesus about divorce, He expressed that Moses permitted it because of the hardness of man’s heart. However, Jesus was calling them to deeper holiness. He was calling them to restore the original plan God had intended for marriage, “A man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.”

Jesus’ words still apply to us here and now in each of our domestic churches. It is the task of families to tirelessly work to restore God’s original plan for marriage and family life — homes filled with gratitude, acceptance, and love.

It takes a daily commitment to live out our call to holiness to restore our families to this beautiful image.
